The Role of Resilience in Navigating Change

Adaptability

Resilient employees excel at coping with uncertainty and ambiguity, readily embracing new roles and responsibilities.

Stress Management

Resilient employees can manage stress more effectively, preventing burnout and remaining positive, balancing their home and work lives.

Problem Solving

Resilient employees are adept at finding solutions during periods of change, often taking a proactive approach to address challenges.

Social Support

Resilient employees have strong support networks within the workplace and collaborate effectively to manage change.

Optimism & Positive Outlook

Resilient employees view change as an opportunity for growth, maintaining high levels of motivation and engagement.

Learning & Development

Resilient employees are eager to acquire new knowledge and skills in a changing environment, actively seeking feedback to enhance their performance.

Maintaining Performance

Resilient employees maintain consistent levels of performance by focusing on controllable factors and managing their time effectively.

Leadership & Influence

Resilient employees serve as role models for their peers, positively impacting workplace culture.

Emotions During a Change Event

Adapting to Change

Best Practice

Focus on the things you can control and move quickly through the change curve to acceptance and beyond.

Look for solutions not problems and reframe negative thoughts into positive actions.

Seek guidance from others who have positively embraced the change.

Set yourself specific goals to help you get to acceptance more quickly.

Consider how you can turn adversity into opportunity.

Take a risk, get out of your comfort zone, challenge yourself and learn from the experience.

Be flexible in your thinking, don't become entrenched in your habitual perspective.

Focus on the opportunity for personal growth and the opportunity to learn new skills.

EXERCISE 1

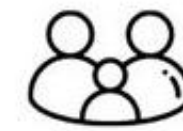

Navigating Change

Record Significant Change Events

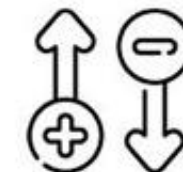

For a major change event, write down your answers to these points. Use the change curve to assist you.

Describe the change event.

What impact will it have on you and your loved ones?

How do you feel?

What are the potential new opportunities that the change may bring?

What new skills might you be able to learn?

Who has already embraced the change and what benefits did they see?

Where are you now on the change curve?

How can you accelerate through to acceptance and beyond?

What specific actions can you take?
