

UNDERSTANDING YOUR CORE VALUES | EXERCISE 1

Analyse Your Core Values

What are your most important 3 -5 core values? Write them down.
See next page for a list of commonly recognised core values.

How do these values help you navigate through your life?

How do these values help you when making decisions?

Commonly Recognised Core Values

Here are 20 commonly recognized core values which guide individuals and organisations:

1. Integrity – Acting with honesty and adhering to moral principles.
2. Respect – Valuing others and treating them with dignity.
3. Accountability – Taking responsibility for actions and decisions.
4. Empathy – Understanding and sharing the feelings of others.
5. Collaboration – Working together towards a common goal.
6. Innovation – Embracing creativity and new ideas.
7. Courage – Acting despite fear or adversity.
8. Trust – Building and maintaining reliability and confidence.
9. Fairness – Ensuring equal treatment and justice for all.
10. Excellence – Striving for high standards and quality in actions and outcomes.
11. Loyalty – Demonstrating commitment to people, causes, or organizations.
12. Adaptability – Being open and flexible to change.
13. Compassion – Showing kindness and concern for others.
14. Sustainability – Prioritising practices that support long-term well-being of people and the planet.
15. Ambition – Pursuing goals with determination and drive.
16. Humility – Being modest and open to growth and learning.
17. Gratitude – Appreciating and valuing people and experiences.
18. Generosity – Giving freely of time, resources, or support.
19. Authenticity – Being true to oneself and one's values.
20. Service – Prioritising the needs of others and contributing positively to communities.